

I know it is hard being a banker having all that money to deal with but the public doesn't bother the bankers in their homes so please don't bother me in my home. If I wanted to be called I would not have signed up for the no call list in the State of Wisconsin. The federal government should stay out of the state's business.